Combat units cannot move or fire without receiving orders from a leader. Each leader counter has two sides: “Activated” and “Finished”. A leader who has not yet been activated or is now activated uses his Activated side. A leader that has concluded his activation is flipped to his Finished side.