Combat units may move and fight only when ordered to do so by their leaders. Leaders issue Individual Orders or Line Commands in the Orders Phase. Leaders may not issue any orders until they are activated. Players may use the Momentum rule to give an activated leader up to two additional Orders Phases. They may also use the Trump Option to activate a Leader sooner than usual.