EXAMPLE: Attacking at 11–5 yields a 3–1 ratio if the attacker moved and adjusts the Shock Table two columns to the right. If the attacker didn't move before attacking, 11–5 would be 2–1, and one column shift right.